2. Purpose of data processing

Your personal data will be processed in order to process your registration for the ‘Disrupted Infrastructures’ symposium as part of the FAVORITEN Festival 2026, to organise the event and to communicate with you in connection with the event.

3. Legal basis

Processing is carried out on the basis of Article 6(1)(b) of the GDPR (implementation of pre-contractual measures or a contract), insofar as the registration relates to participation in the event.

4. Recipients of the data

Your data will be processed exclusively by those persons entrusted with the organisation and running of the symposium. Data will only be disclosed to external service providers insofar as this is necessary for the running of the event (e.g. IT service providers or printing service providers) or where there is a legal obligation to do so.

5. Retention period

Your personal data will only be stored for as long as is necessary for the organisation and follow-up of the symposium, as well as to fulfil statutory retention obligations. The data will then be deleted.

6. Obligation to provide data

You must provide the personal data required for registration so that we can process your registration and organise your participation. Unfortunately, registration is not possible without this information.

7. Your rights

Under the GDPR, you have the right to:

- access your stored personal data,
- rectification of inaccurate data,
- erasure of your data, provided there are no statutory retention obligations to the contrary,
- restriction of processing,
- data portability,
- object to the processing, provided the legal conditions are met,
- withdraw consent with effect for the future.

Furthermore, you have the right to lodge a complaint with a data protection supervisory authority regarding the processing of your personal data.

8. Contact

If you have any questions regarding data protection, please contact:
